

1994-1995

Report on Sexual Abuse Survivors Published

By Dawn Currie

The report, Report on Sexual Abuse Survivors, is the first of its kind in the province. It was published by the Nova Scotia Department of Health Services, and is available to the public. The report is a result of a study conducted by the Nova Scotia Department of Health Services, and is available to the public. The report is a result of a study conducted by the Nova Scotia Department of Health Services, and is available to the public.

Report

The report is a result of a study conducted by the Nova Scotia Department of Health Services, and is available to the public. The report is a result of a study conducted by the Nova Scotia Department of Health Services, and is available to the public. The report is a result of a study conducted by the Nova Scotia Department of Health Services, and is available to the public.

workshop on social programs reform... to inform women about the federal governments social programs

At the workshop, women were informed about the federal governments social programs. The women were informed about the federal governments social programs.

Women's groups tired of support without cash

By CATHY MCGILL

Read and most politicians are well-versed in the issue. Ellen Power, of the Liberal Caucus, said her newly formed group wants to see action on what she calls an epidemic. She said deaths from breast cancer have risen in the last 20 years, prompting a desperate need for more money for breast research. Gender has may explain the money devoted to fighting breast cancer, said Power. She said it appears more money is spent on prostate cancer and AIDS research, while treatments for breast cancer are antiquated.

"women helping women" project

Women's Center in Video Project

By Dawn Currie

The project is a video project that aims to educate women about their rights and the services available to them. The project is a video project that aims to educate women about their rights and the services available to them.

The video project is a video project that aims to educate women about their rights and the services available to them. The project is a video project that aims to educate women about their rights and the services available to them.

sexual assault project

AWRC representative Gloria Landry (left) presents an award of appreciation to Margie and Jim MacIntyre for their support of Antigonish Women's Association projects over the years. The two represent the local Jim's One Stop business on James Street. The presentation was made at the annual general meeting of the A.W.A. on June 15.

Barbara Hayes speaks on the history of women's activism in Antigonish

The presentation was made at the annual general meeting of the A.W.A. on June 15.

panel presentations on "working towards equality"

- AWRC/AWA BOARD OF DIRECTORS: 1994-1995
- Sara avMaat
 - Janette Fecteau
 - May Goring
 - Barbara Hayes
 - Theresa MacNeil
 - Lorraine Reddick
 - Anita Stewart
 - Pam Swanson

- STAFF
- Katherine Reed
 - Barbara Hayes
 - Vangie Babin
 - Susan Jewkes
 - Lucille Harper
 - Ellen King
 - Doris Gillis
 - Olga Landry

- Lorraine Keating
- Martha McGinn
- (Adolescent Health Project)
- (Community Response to Sexual Assault)
- (Community Response to Sexual Assault)
- (Community Response to Sexual Assault)
- (Fundraising Strategies for Social Justice Organizations in Rural Nova Scotia)

adolescent health project

adolescent health project