

Antigonish community voices need for end to violence against women

On Friday, March 11, the Antigonish community gathered for the National Day of Remembrance for the victims of violence against women. The event was held at the Antigonish Community Centre and was attended by a large number of people from the community.

The event was organized by the Antigonish Women's Resource Centre and the Antigonish Women's Support Group. The purpose of the event was to raise awareness of the issue of violence against women and to honor the memory of the women who have been victims of this crime.

The event began with a prayer and a reading of the names of the women who have been victims of violence against women. This was followed by a presentation of a video about the issue of violence against women. The video was titled "The National Day of Remembrance" and was produced by the Antigonish Women's Resource Centre.

After the video, there was a discussion about the issue of violence against women. The discussion was led by the Antigonish Women's Resource Centre and the Antigonish Women's Support Group. The discussion focused on the causes of violence against women and on ways to prevent this crime.

The event ended with a prayer and a reading of the names of the women who have been victims of violence against women. The Antigonish Women's Resource Centre and the Antigonish Women's Support Group would like to thank all of the people who attended the event and who helped to make it a success.
