

Inspiring song

March 10, 2010
The Casket

As part of International Women's Day celebrations, the Antigonish Women's Resource Centre invited local restaurants to offer women a free coffee. Members of the Wandering Menstruals, a local feminist choir, including Marion Miller (left), Betsy MacDonald and Natalie Abdou, provided songs of inspiration along the route. One of the stops along the way was the Piper's Pub. (Corey LeBlanc photo)
