

BYSTANDER SUPPORT

At the Antigonish Women's Resource Centre May 16, Antigonish MLA Randy Delorey (centre) presented a check to the Bringing in the Bystander program on behalf of the province's Department of Justice. The one-time Community Crime Prevention Investment Grant will allow the program to further develop and reach more people in Nova Scotia. Accepting the check are Lucille Harper (left), Hailey Vidler, Annie Chau, Brandon Hamilton, Ben Gunn-Doerge, Brianna Boyle, Bilha Ndomo, Semira Abdu and Lori Castle. Chau said of the program, "Bringing in the Bystander is a great example of how federal and provincial funding can come together and how we can all come together as a community to actively prevent sexual violence. The provincial money will be very instrumental in allowing this program to continue its success." PHOTO: Submitted
