

Women's Voices: The Power of Speaking Out

Rachel Garbary and Sam Wilson performed three songs Saturday night during the Feminist Cabaret for International Women's Week at the Split Crow. PHOTOS: Emily Hiltz

Event organizers and participants of an International Women's Week Breakfast Annie Chau (left), Brenda Berthiaume, Colleen Cameron, Molly Peters, Lorraine Fennell and Lucille Harper gathered after the event at the Prissy Pig Café and Deli.

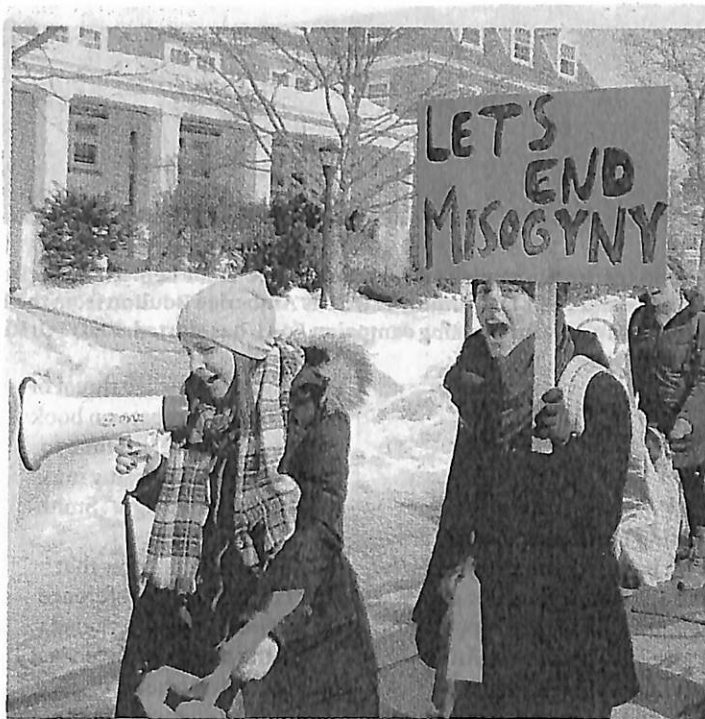

Melanie Mackay performed songs on her ukulele at the Feminist Cabaret for International Women's Week Saturday night.

Mary and Laura Besaw were all smiles at the International Potluck at St. James United Church for International Women's Day March 8.

Sisters Margaret and Susan Walsh performed together during the International Women's Week Feminist Cabaret at the Split Crow March 7.

Hailey Vidler and Lisa Gunn were just some of the many StFX students, faculty and community members who took part in a march for International Women's Day Sunday afternoon.

Mothers honoured at breakfast C3

*The Casket
March 11/15*

MARCHING FOR WOMEN

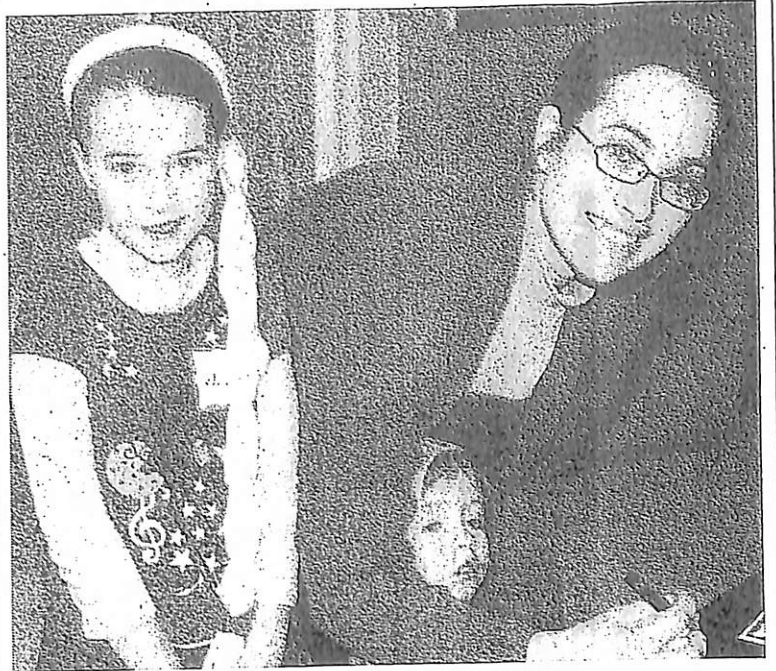

The Casked
March 11/14

Mothers honoured at breakfast C3

IWD POTLUCK

Elena LeBlanc and her children Willow and Dahlia were among those who came out to the International Potluck at St. James United Church for International Women's Day Sunday evening. PHOTO: Emily Hiltz

Hailey Vidler and Lisa Gunn were just some of the many StFX students, faculty and community members who took part in a march for International Women's Day Sunday afternoon.

THE CASKET

WWW.THECASKET.CA

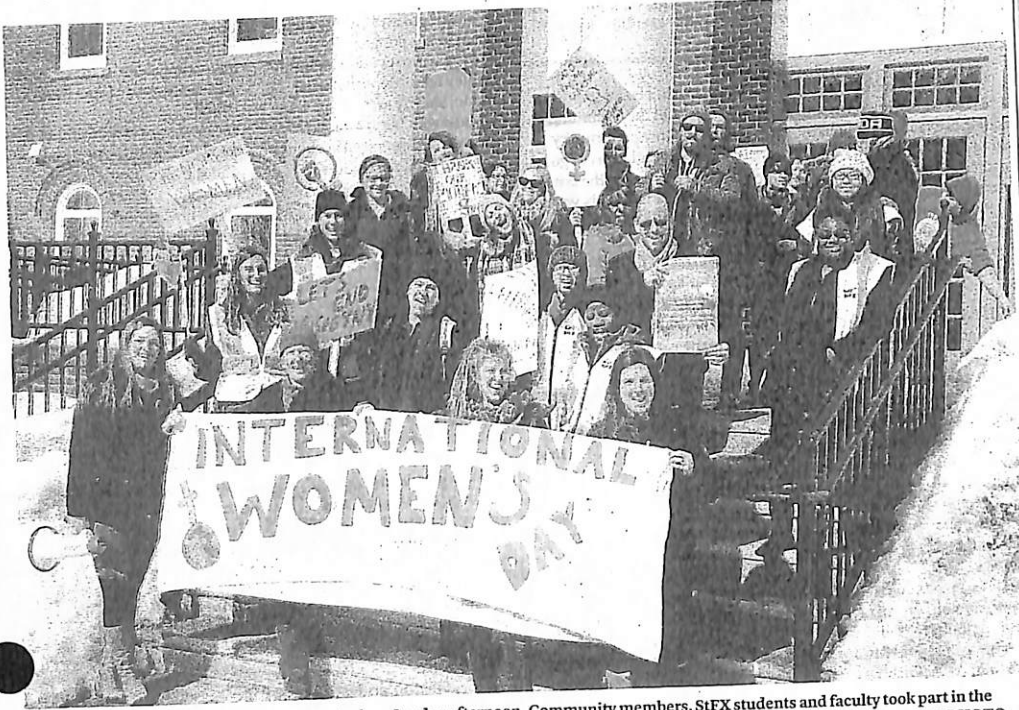

Volume 163 Number 34

11 MARCH 2015

ANTIGONISH'S SOURCE FOR NEWS SINCE 1852.

CLASSIFIEDS D3 EDITORIAL A4 EMPLOYMENT D2 LIFE C1 OBITUARIES D4-5 REAL ESTATE A6 RELIGION D5 SPORTS B1

MARCHING FOR WOMEN

A march for International Women's Day took place Sunday afternoon. Community members, StFX students and faculty took part in the walk which started at the Coady and was led down Main Street. For more photos on International Women's Day activities see A8. PHOTO: Emily Hiltz

*The Casket
March 11/15*