

Building an Inter-Cultural Workplace taking place Oct. 18

The Antigonish Women's Resource Centre and the Antigonish Community Health Board are holding a free inter-cultural competency workshop, entitled Building an Inter-Cultural Workplace.

In this workshop, participants will learn how everyone can create and modify a workplace culture, become familiar with the idea of a 'inter-cultural workplace,' and understand streotypes and how to get beyond them.

The workshop is open to local community members, community-based organizations, healthcare, educational institutions, government/non-government agencies and others, who work with diverse populations.

The workshop will take place on Thursday, Oct. 18, from 1 to 4 p.m. in the community room at the People's Place Library.

Persons are asked to contact Jubanti Toppo at 902-318-3985, or jubanti@awrc-sasa.ca, to register.
